

Submitter: Andrew Weeks

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Judiciary

Measure: HB2006

The idea being promoted that 18-year-olds are not mentally mature enough to possess a firearm but yet are allowed to vote. Voting has more far-reaching consequences than owning a firearm will ever have. The idea that 18-year-olds can join the military, fight and die for this country but can't possess a firearm is ludicrous if this comes to pass. I strongly oppose this on every level.