

Submitter: Andy Abate

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Energy and Environment

Measure: SB525

Gas tools in general have environmental costs which are being pushed onto the whole community without consent. The people using the tools should pay the costs.

Less noxious, quiet tools already exist, so obsolete and dirty gas tools need to be phased out.