

Submitter: Cindy Corbus
On Behalf Of:
Committee: House Committee On Judiciary
Measure: HB3214

This form of entertainment has long outlived its popularity for very good reason. These animals are confined their entire lives. It is an inhumane way to treat animals. At zoos and refuges animals have at least quality of life. With a world of recreational options there is no need for captive animal acts.