

Submitter: Kathryn Redmond

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Natural Resources

Measure: SB85

Now is the time to act with integrity when making decisions that affect climate. We must not agree to establish or support new agricultural enterprises in Oregon that are known to produce enormous amounts of greenhouse gas emissions. Animal agriculture is a driver of climate change, and more close to home, poisons the air and soil in communities where it is practiced.