

Submitter: Anne Kayser

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Natural Resources

Measure: SB85

Please do not allow the construction of new concentrated feedlots for chickens and other livestock in Oregon. This model of animal husbandry is cruel to the animals, bad for the environment, and bad for people living near and consuming the animals being raised in concentration. Let us move towards more sustainable agricultural models like permaculture.