Measure: HB2006

This bill is already basically in place so it is not necessary. We are currently trying to pass bills saying that 16 year old juveniles are responsible enough to vote and this bill says they are not able to posses firearms if under 21... can we think about this for just a minute? What purpose does this serve if passed? Why are we wasting our time with these kids of things in our state legislature... as a tax paying citizen of this once great state I am disappointed to say the least.
