Measure: HB2005

I believe that when the framers of the Constitution, said "shall not be in fringed", that's what they meant. Criminals will do what they want, because they don't follow laws anyway. So this is aimed at law abiding citizens, who don't break the law. AND don't commit crimes, since they don't break the law, why can't they build a So called "ghost" gun...If it is for there hunting and shooting pleasure. What you might want to do is actually enforce laws you already have, and that might help curb crime a bit. But because of this soft on crime stants that Oregon has....
