

Submitter: Christine Wepener

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Judiciary

Measure: HB2006

People can die for this country at 18 years of age. They deserve to have the rights that their dying to defend. This measure is a gross violation of the rights of legal adults based solely on age. This is age discrimination and it should not be allowed.