

Submitter: Linda Willnow

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Natural Resources

Measure: SB85

I request more study be done on the effects of industrial farming like large cattle and chicken operations before we add more such operations in our state. Their impacts on our environment, including water and air quality should be studied. Also, Oregon needs to examine the impacts to transportation and small family farms.