

Submitter: Peter Glen

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Housing and Development

Measure: SB611

I find this hard to understand, someone can control my rent that I want or need to have positive cash flow. Maybe you should have a bill that controls what an attorney can charge too. That's like controlling what a department stores can charge or limit their price increase on a product from one year to the next.