

Submitter: Jason Jones

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Education

Measure: HB2895

As a special educator of over ten years, I support the removal of spending caps on special education in Oregon. In the various school districts where I have worked, special education enrollment often exceeds 11% of the student population. Districts should be able to allot special education budgets that are proportional to the number of students served.