I suggest that natural products such as fur still be allowed for sale for fly fishing, fly tying and fishing in general. There are so many lures that make use of fur, hair, and feathers in their construction that a total ban on fur would disrupt. For example classic flies such as elk hair caddis flies, zonker flies made from strips of rabbit or squirrel fur, ducktail, calf tail, deer hair. Most of these are available as byproducts from hunters or the meat industry,
