On Behalf Of: myself
Committee: Senate Committee On Judiciary
Measure: SB527

I oppose letting anyone restrict existing age limits on weapons sales. You want to deny or rewrite existing parameters, call a Convention of States and try to amend the Constitution. this is the fifth bill (that I know of so far) in this session trying to abrogate our rights. Liberal and Woke demonstrators can tear up a community with no, or very few, consequences. Why is anyone surprised at the major uptick in women (77% since 2005), blacks (58% in just 2019-2020), 43% among Asians (same time-frame), and 46% among Latinos (same time-frame) buying guns. An 18-year-old can vote, enlist, and marry. There's no reason to say he has to be older to arm himself. The world getting more violent. Drop this gun bill along with all the others. Quit messin' with our right to protect ourselves.
