

Submitter: Liz Smith

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Joint Committee On Transportation

Measure: HB3202

I love the night sky. And I miss the night sky. I used to regularly venture outside to appreciate it but now that my apartment complex has installed intensely bright outdoor lighting, I can no longer view the night sky (and I've had to install heavy drapes so that we can sleep in darkness). I know many other humans and animals suffer from this.