

This is an attempt to bypass judicial process by a desperate group of vipers who have no respect for either the state or the national constitution.

I invite the "Reverend" Knutson to move to Canada or Mexico if he hates American values so much.

Please do not waste even more of my tax money pursuing legislation that is doomed to fail out of spite. There's no way for this to pass muster under Bruen or Heller and forcing it through would be a deprivation of rights under color of law, which used to be punishable by up to 10 years in prison.
