

Submitter: Christi Wrench
On Behalf Of:
Committee: Senate Committee On Education
Measure: SB409

There are several states that already require curriculum to be made available online. This isn't something new, just new to Oregon. Parents should know what is being taught to their children.