

Submitter: Milton Jones

On Behalf
Of:

Committee: House Committee On Agriculture, Land Use, Natural Resources, and Water

Measure: HB2659

Currently, cities are approving increased density without supporting basic municipal infrastructure (sidewalks, paved streets). This is in the name of "affordable housing" but it is both unsafe and a planning disaster. Increased density, infill and new construction should be accompanied by necessary supporting public infrastructure. It is my opinion that areas without supporting infrastructure should not be allowed increase density. The allowed construction should reflect the municipal infrastructure available to support it.