

Submitter: Cynthia Scherr

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Education

Measure: HB3198

The most fundamental solution to social problems is to ensure that children get a comprehensive, unbiased, and affordable education. Reading skills are essential. Funding reading education needs to be both a short term and a long term priority for the state.