Measure: HJR23

I urge you to oppose HJR 23, which would allow the Legislature to retain personal kicker payments owed to Oregon taxpayers. The kicker represents unanticipated tax revenue, which hardworking Oregonians need more than state budget writers. The governor already has proposed to increase state spending by 20% over the next two years even as taxpayers struggle to cover the ever-increasing cost of food, fuel and housing.

The kicker belongs to taxpayers. HJR 23 would allow legislators to take it. Please support hardworking Oregonians and oppose this bill.
