

Submitter: Janice Hornsby

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Education

Measure: HB3198

Kids need more help at school to develop reading skills. They also need more help to learn printing and handwritten skills (which further support reading skills!). All this technology has made things so easy by just a push of a button that children are not learning how to persist when things and skills needed to learn take more time!