I think littering is a major problem, and reducing incentives to prevent it is a huge mistake. We are farmers, and people dump mattresses, and all sorts of very disgusting garbage on our land for US to get rid of at OUR expense. I would not want US to have increased expenses fines or fees for being the dump site of the irresponsible, BUT I DO WANT THE PEOPLE WHO DISREGARD PRIVATE PROPERTY AND WHO DO NOT RESPECT THE LAND ENOUGH TO HELP KEEP IT CLEAN TO PAY THE EXPENSE OF PICKING IT UP. It costs someone time and money to pick up roadside litter. That cost needs to be on the backs of the people doing the littering. I do not support any bill anywhere that reduces responsibility of the wrong doer.
