Measure: SB507

Oregon has lost over 300K acres of farmland in the last five years. The demographic of farmers is largely white, male, and aging. We are blessed with bountiful soil, waters, and forests, and we need people who are willing to work that land in order to maintain any semblance of food independence in Oregon. We should support this modest ask that will support multiple income streams for family farmers trying to make ends meet. Please pass this law.
