Measure: HB3501

This bill will continue to ruin these peoples lives by enabling their refusal to enter our society. If we continue to make it easier to live on the fringe of our society, the homeless will never become self sufficient or have any self worth. They will be doomed to a life of poverty and dependency on others for survival. That is no way to live. We need to look at ways to help them enter society for their mental health and not enable bad life choices. A hand up, not a hand out. Life on the streets should be difficult to the point that only the truly needy are on the street and we should help them.
