Measure: HB3501

Is this bill a joke? I honestly can't tell at this point. I don't know why people in this state's government think we can provide as many reasons for the worst kind of people to come here, abuse, harass and steal from the populace, and then die on our sidewalks from an overdose, and expect people not to leave. I was just in Seattle this weekend. It's clean and feels safe. Let's do whatever it is they did. Whatever it was, it certainly wasn't say "you can set up a tent wherever you want, do whatever you want, and stay there forever." Jesus H Christ. I'm tired of it. Everyone I know is tired of it. I'm getting to the point that I don't want to live in, and can't earnestly support this state, my home state, any more. It's embarrassing.
