Measure: HB3501

In our current climate, it's inconceivable how anyone would arrive at a bill like this; that any person or group would deliberately write out the whole text of the bill thinking the idea was such a good one that it should be law; that such ideas would do any good for the challenges that we as a whole society face; that essentially giving total free reign to anyone residing on public land would make any positive change to the current homeless crisis that is plaguing our city.

I'm happy to see a nearly-unanimous OPPOSE response from those who have also left testimony. This is INSANE.

I honestly don't know what thought-process and/or ideology compels anyone, much less LAW MAKERS in the state house, to arrive at an almost comical approach to our current situation. You're essentially asking for everyone to completely give up and give in, surrender all public lands and stay quiet lest one offend and get fined $1000!

The persons responsible for this bill need to be removed from office following a thorough mental health evaluation. Seriously. Let's get real ideas that are tethered to reality PLEASE. This is absolute insanity.
