This is such an astronomically terrible idea. Why should tax paying citizens give up our parks and sidewalks to people who do nothing but trash our beautiful cities? I can barely go downtown anymore without being threatened or harassed by a junkie or someone experiencing a psychotic break and you want to give them MORE leniency that what they already have? I paid good money to buy a house across the street from a nice park and I do not want to see it turn into a tent city in the name of false empathy. These degenerates need to be cracked down on, not given even more leniency to ruin what the taxpayers support.
