

Submitter: John Oswald
On Behalf Of:
Committee: Senate Committee On Rules
Measure: SB27

I wholeheartedly OPPOSE SB 27 and its completely unrelated and nakedly sneaky Amendment(s).

Oregon is the easiest state I've ever lived in to vote. Anyone can vote. From the comfort of your own bong table or grave. Former residents (moved away or dead) don't need to stay on the rolls. We don't need more catered lunches and billable hours to do a study of the Constitution and Laws to make it easier to vote in Oregon.

This bill is simply a mosquito carrying a payload that the cowards in the Oregon Legislature are afraid to introduce as an optional vaccine. We don't need to sneak in a completely unrelated Amendment to repeal the same sex marriage ban. If you want to address that, do it head-on. Bring it out in the open for all to see.

Vote NO.
