There's a big difference between a hand out and a hand up. Oregon has become such an enabler to drugs and homelessness. Our problems are only getting worse, but what do we do? Instead of reversing course, we double down on all the things that make the issue worse. I'm getting sick of this state and feeling pressure to move somewhere where homelessness is discouraged and getting jobs and contributing to society is encouraged. I've been a tax payer in this state for 35 years and I see the homeless continually trash and deface the places my tax payor money built.
