Measure: HB3501

Portland is already becoming a dangerous and disgusting city where I don't want to live anymore. I used to love it here, but every time I have yo step over a pile of human feces or cross the street to avoid someone doing drugs on the sidewalk it makes me want to move. This bill is a LEAP in the wrong direction. It's not just bad - it's awful. We should be getting tents and drugs and homeless people with no will to live off the street instead of encouraging them to continue destroying it'll the city. From an environmental, cultural, financial, societal, and anthropological standpoint this would be almost as big of a failure as measure 110. This is just dumb, and everyone who came up with this idea really needs to rethink their choices in life and what happened to make them hate Portland so much. Nobody who loves this city would suggest something like this.
