Measure: HB3501

Houseless people should not be able to camp on public lands, unless in designated areas, just like the rest of us. Their presence on public property affects my right to use that public property as a member of the public. It also degrades the safety and cleanliness of public spaces. The state would be better off creating non public places where people with nowhere to go can rest, as well as determining which houseless people are there temporarily and which ones prefer to live on the street due to mental illness or addiction.
