This is insanity. The city is on its knees and falling apart. It's not hard to see what happens if this passes. More people leave, tax receipts down, property values fall, jobs leave, more homelessness. Portland is fast becoming a failed city because of this toxic empathy. It's time to make a decision - do you support the people who live and work here and pay some of the highest taxes in the nation (for the worst services)? Or do you support the junkies who choose to live on the streets and destroy the quality of life for everyone?
