

This is a terrible idea that will essentially give away public parks to drug addicts and criminals, removing them from any of their intended uses. Violence and sex crimes will also increase, take it from a guy who just lived in Vancouver's downtown east side, this will not work.