Measure: HB2572

I believe this to be another attempt for government to label peoples of certain background and ideologies a criminal. It would be used against people who exercise their rights in opposition to the government and government over reach. If you are trying to create legislation to protect yourself by limiting the rights of the people through law then you are acting in a tyrannical way and should be removed from office for not following your oath.

If it weren't for these paramilitary militias, many of the battles in the revolutionary war would not have been won.
