

Submitter: Joshua Bledsoe
On Behalf Of:
Committee: Joint Committee On Transportation
Measure: SB422

Follow the science. All data indicates that it's safer for all motorists to allow lane splitting. We all just want to get home safe to our families. Don't let another person get seriously injured or killed by a distracted driver when the cyclist could have lane split.