

I am a motorcyclist in Oregon, and I believe this bill should be passed. It's time for the politicians that oppose this bill to get their heads out of their butts and start thinking about the safety of the motorcyclists in this state. Maybe more of their energy should be put into creating a bill that will keep impaired drivers behind bars.....