Hello my name is Seanna Swanson, I'm in 11th grade at Ridgeview High School in Redmond Oregon. One day around 5pm I had gone to the Safeway in Redmond to get some cookies for a Coaches meeting that I was going to. About two weeks before the incident Mrs. Csiky attend my health class at Ridgeview to teach about human trafficking. When i was walking out of the Safeway a female around 50 years of age approached me and was asking if i could drive her down to california because her daughter was stuck in the flooding in california. I politely said no, but she continued talking to me, she said that she'd pay for hotels and gas. Then she continued to say that she'll just follow me to my car and that it wouldn't be a problem. After saying constantly that i wouldn't i ended up getting up set and say that i said no and i told her to get out of my face. I walked to another car because she was staring at me but once she went into the Safeway i went to my car, checked underneath and pulled my sleeve over my hand to open my door then continued to take out my sweater and put it in a bag just in case. I would've have known that i was in that situation if it weren't for the course that my health class took.
