BACKGROUND:

The Oregon Health Authority oversees several home visiting programs for low-income families before and after childbirth. One such program is operated by Nurse-Family Partnership, a nonprofit organization that is active in nine Oregon counties. Nurse-Family Partnership pairs nurses with parents and families early in pregnancy through a child's second birthday to engage in regular home visits. The visits are designed to promote healthy practices, improve child development, and support economic self-sufficiency. NFP receives partial federal funding through the Maternal, Infant, and Early Childhood Home Visiting \(MIECHV\) program and Medicaid. The remaining costs are covered by county funds.

House Bill 4105 appropriates $3,155,147 General Fund to the Oregon Health Authority to cover the county-provided share of costs of the Nurse-Family Partnership program.
