BACKGROUND:

The Public Employee Collective Bargaining Act (PECBA), enacted in 1973, codifies the laws governing employment relations and public employers and employees in the state, counties, cities, school districts, transportation districts, and other local governments, as well as private employers not subject to the jurisdiction of the National Labor Relations Board. Employees that are not covered under the PECBA and who are prohibited from organizing include elected officials; persons appointed to serve on boards or commissions; certain incarcerated persons; or persons who are confidential employees, supervisory employees or managerial employees. In 2014, the Legislative Assembly passed Senate Bill 1518, which modified the definition of “supervisory employee” to exclude firefighters who are prohibited from striking and who assign, transfer, or direct the work of others but lack authority to hire, fire, or impose economic discipline. In 2023, the Legislative Assembly passed SB 194, which further modified the definition of “supervisory employee” to exclude any employee of the Oregon State Police who serves in a rank equivalent to or below the rank of sergeant.

House Bill 4115 A clarifies the delineation between supervisory employees and non-supervisory employees for correctional institutions, law enforcement agencies, mental hospitals, and other related institutions. The exclusion from the definition of a "supervisory employee" makes someone eligible to participate in a labor organization.
