board at any time for cause, after notice and public hearing, but may not remove more than three members within a period of four years, unless it is for corrupt conduct in office. Faculty and nonfaculty staff board members may not participate in any discussions or action by the board or attend any executive session of the board involving collective bargaining issues that affect faculty or nonfaculty staff at the university.

The board must select one of its members as chair and another as vice chair for such terms and with duties and powers as the board considers necessary for the performance of the functions of those offices. The governing board shall adopt bylaws concerning how a quorum is constituted and when a quorum is necessary. The board must meet at least four times per year and may meet at the call of the chairperson or a majority of the voting members of the board.

Duties

Each of Oregon's seven public universities has a governing board that:⁴

- provides transparency, public accountability, and support for the university;
- is close to and closely focused on the individual university;
- leads to greater access and affordability for Oregon residents and does not disadvantage Oregon students relative to out-of-state students;
- acts in the best interests of both the university and the State of Oregon; and
- promotes the academic success of students in support of the mission of all education beyond high school.

The governing board of each university must:⁵

- adopt the university budget;
- appoint, employ, and supervise a university president, in consultation with the Governor;
- establish a process for determining tuition and mandatory enrollment fees within statutory guidelines;
- have custody and control of, and care for, all real and personal property used for university purposes;
- ensure that sufficient collateral secures any amount of funds on deposit that exceeds the limits of the coverage of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or the National Credit Union Administration;

⁴ ORS 352.025 and 352.054 \(2023\).

⁵ ORS 352.087 to 352.309 \(2023\).

- adopt standards governing employees' outside employment and activities, including potential conflicts of interest, and procedures for reporting and hearing potential or actual conflicts of interest;
- provide group insurance and deferred compensation plans to employees;
- adopt minimum standards for a comprehensive alcohol and drug abuse policy and implementation plan;
- exempt a student who is not a citizen or a lawful permanent resident of the United States, or financially dependent on a person who is not a citizen or a lawful permanent resident of the United States, from paying nonresident tuition and fees under specified conditions; and
- adopt standards for the administration of statutes assigned to the board.

The governing board of each university may also:⁶

- authorize, establish, eliminate, collect, manage, use in any manner, and expend all revenue derived from tuition and mandatory enrollment fees;
- police, control, and regulate traffic and parking of vehicles on university property;
- establish a police department and commission one or more employees as police officers with the same authority and immunity of a municipal police department;
- commission special campus security officers;
- sell forest products on university lands and conduct experimental or research projects in the field of forestland management or for forest product utilization on forestlands in the same manner as the State Forester;
- undertake the construction of any building or structure for higher education when the board conservatively estimates that the public university will have sufficient revenues to pay the operating costs and any indebtedness for the building or structure and enter into contracts for the acquisition, erection, improvement, repair, equipping, and furnishing of buildings and structures;
- adopt standards and specific orders by or through the president of each public university governing access to personnel records of the public university or office, department, or activity that are less than 25 years old;
- authorize receipt of compensation for any officer or employee from private or public resources;
- contract with the Armed Forces of the United States to furnish educational service to active members of the Armed Forces of the United States; and
- perform any other acts that in the judgment of the governing board are required, necessary, or appropriate to accomplish the rights and responsibilities granted to the governing board by law.
