Date: 2/1/2024

SUMMARY

Digest: The Act makes counties plan for areas of Metro that are not in a city, lets home builders use updated local rules, lets real estate agents accept love letters, amends middle housing land divisions and mobile home registrations, lets sick or injured tenants pay rent late and lets city staff grant or end tax exemption for single-unit housing. (Flesch Readability Score: 63.8).

Requires Metro counties to plan for the housing needs of Metro urban unincorporated lands.

Allows a housing developer with a pending application to opt in to amended local land use regulations.

Allows sellers' real estate agents to accept irregular documents from buyers.

Allows serial middle housing land partitions to be considered a single partition. Extends the applicability of middle housing land divisions to townhouses.

Removes requirements that a manufactured dwelling owner register the dwelling with the Department of Consumer and Business Services or cancel the registration before obtaining a mortgage recorded in the county real property records.

Delays the deadlines for purposes of late fees or evictions by which tenants must pay rent during, and up to three days after, the tenants' hospitalization.

Allows a city to administratively approve or terminate the property tax exemption for single-unit housing.

Takes effect on the 91st day following adjournment sine die.
