5 section, the council shall appoint a community member who meets the description.

6 (4) The subcommittee shall identify state-issued professional authorization options for 7 existing and emerging behavioral health professions and for determining the structures and 8 supports needed to sustain the youth behavioral health workforce. The subcommittee shall 9 focus on behavioral health professions that have the potential to increase both equitable ac-
10 cess to behavioral health supports and the diversity of the existing behavioral health
11 workforce to be more reflective of the youth population of this state. Additionally, the sub-12 committee shall:

13 (a) Identify existing and emerging behavioral health professions that serve the youth 14 population of this state and for which there are no state-issued professional authorizations, 15 including information about the defining characteristics of each profession and the ability 16 of each profession to increase access to and diversity of the behavioral health workforce;

17 (b) Provide recommendations regarding how to better align the behavioral health pro-
18 fessions described in paragraph (a) of this subsection with existing health professional regu-
19 latory agencies;

20 (c) Develop recommendations to establish state-issued professional authorizations to 21 support expanding the behavioral health workforce that serves the youth population of this 22 state; and

23 (d) Identify strategies for creating pathways into the behavioral health professions that 24 serve the youth population of this state for individuals who are underrepresented in the 25 current behavioral health workforce.

26 (5) The subcommittee shall submit, in the manner provided by ORS 192.245:

27 (a) An initial report, which may include recommendations for legislation, to the interim
28 committees of the Legislative Assembly related to behavioral health not later than Septem-29 ber 15, 2024; and

30 (b) A final report, which may include recommendations for legislation, to the Legislative 31 Assembly not later than December 15, 2025.
