

Submitter: Angela Kim

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Judiciary

Measure: SB1560

I have seen firsthand the effects of those who pass away in institutions and how it effects all who surround them. No person is an island and the ripple effect is far reaching. No family, friend, staff and the ill should be forced to die under such circumstances. When death is imminent one should be allowed to pass in peach surrounded by loved ones.