I STRONGLY OPPOSE. This is against fair elections of and by the people.

The ruling class wants to appoint people to offices, instead of going to a vote of the people, so that the person in office becomes incumbent and then has a big advantage in the next election.

Furthermore, the governor choosing someone from the same party doesn't work. The governor of vastly different views, would choose a person more aligned with his/her views and principles than the views and principles of the person leaving the office.
