Measure: HB4124

The organizations and projects funded by this bill will carry significant benefits to the communities in which they are situated and for all Oregonians. From positive tourism impacts, to construction jobs, to educational opportunities, many of these projects and organizations will see benefits for decades to come with this small investment today.

In particular, the Oregon Film Museum is slated for help with its expansion in Astoria. Already a phenomenal success with visitors and locals, this expansion will allow the museum to better fulfil its educational mission, connecting Oregon students and adult learners with the opportunities that exist in their own backyard in the film and television industries and arts. It is our community's goal to connect all students with meaningful career opportunities without requiring them to necessarily leave their home community. This expansion paves the road to a novel and exciting new opportunity to add to that list.
