

How about a Mental Health Task Force instead? Leave our guns alone. This would be like taking cars away from people because some die in a car accident. Leave us law abiding citizens alone.

Debbie