

I support this bill. As a working musician I depend on arts organizations to thrive and continue to employ professionals. The community benefits greatly when arts organizations are value and supported in their missions. Thank you.