

I do not agree with banning of any books with in our state. We have the right to choose what we read and what we learn. This is a FREEDOM that should not be taken away.