

Submitter: Jake Brown

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Education

Measure: SB1583

SB1583 severely limits local school boards' authority over curriculum and instructional materials, aiming to centralize control and potentially introduce content against community values. This undermines local governance and the ability of communities to tailor education to traditional standards that parents need in order to raise mentally healthy and contributing adults.