

I support bill 1565. Parents are truly the best caretakers for their children and supporting them will allow a parent to stay home and relieve the already over-burdened health care industry. I have friends that would be positively impacted by this, both teachers and this would give them a little bit of financial relief.