You're completely brain dead if you even think this is good idea! I have lived in Oregon since 1953. I retired in 1999. Because of the unbelievable high taxes, I couldn't afford to live in the tri counties in the Portland area. Therefore, I moved to Klamath county and at the time was more affordable. Now with the out-of-control politicians in Oregon I'm ashamed to say that I even live in Oregon. Oregon is so out of control with their bone head politics, I am considering moving out of state along with many, many more citizens. No one can afford living in Oregon anymore. Take a look at the exodus and soon to be mass exodus from Oregon.
